

Dreamscape

Dear fate, there's no reflection I can land on
No sense of comfort to remind me of
The reason for my sacrifice

'Cause I can't associate my love with a madness that is undefined
And compassion is no friend of spite
I'll stay entrenched to dance with demons now

Dreamscape, surreal depictions of what hold me back
I'm just a pawn to come and go, untracked
This revelation breeds lucidity

Clean slate, run like the wind and don't look back at the scene
There's someone counting on my safe reprieve
Some conflicts can't be won with lead

Set me free
Rescue me
Set me free
Get me through

Rescue me from what we started
Sail me over ocean blue
Honor for the dear departed
Get me through

Maker, don't you follow me
Cuz I've got life and love yet to confess
Death toll, don't you tally me
Cuz I'm leaving

Set me free
Rescue me
Set me free
Get me through

Rescue me from what we started
Sail me over ocean blue
Honor for the dear departed
Get me through
